

Navistar Names New Treasurer

Bill McMenamin, President of Navistar Financial Corporation, Adds Corporate Treasurer Responsibilities

LISLE, Ill., Aug. 24, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Navistar International Corporation (NYSE: NAV) today announced that Bill McMenamin, president of Navistar Financial Corporation (NFC), will add responsibilities as senior vice president and treasurer of the company. McMenamin replaces Jim Moran, who is leaving Navistar to pursue other career opportunities.

McMenamin joined Navistar in 2001 as director of corporate finance and has held roles of increasing responsibility at NFC, Navistar's wholly-owned finance subsidiary, including vice president of strategy, vice president of credit, chief financial officer and treasurer, as well as president of NFC. Prior to joining Navistar, McMenamin served as the chief financial officer of the Advanced Group, a privately held human resources services company. Earlier in his career, McMenamin worked at Continental Bank and Ernst & Whinney.

Moran joined Navistar in 2005 following a 16-year career at R.R. Donnelley & Sons Company. Moran held roles of increasing responsibility at Navistar including director of corporate finance, vice president and assistant treasurer, and senior vice president and treasurer.

"Jim has been a valuable contributor to Navistar and the Finance & Accounting organization over the past 10 years, and we wish him well in his future endeavors," said Walter Borst, Navistar executive vice president and chief financial officer. "At the same time, we're proud to have Bill add this role to his NFC responsibilities. He is a technically skilled, highly collaborative financial executive that has a track record of success at NFC and will contribute a wealth of experience and knowledge to his new role."

<https://news.international.com/2015-08-24-Navistar-Names-New-Treasurer>