

Navistar On Track With Planned Financial Filings

WARRENVILLE, Ill. (June 24, 2008) Navistar International Corporation (Other OTC: NAVZ) plans to release its first and second quarter 2008 Form 10-Q financial filings by the end of June, fulfilling an earlier commitment to investors to complete these filings by mid-year.

“With the filing of our first two quarterly reports for 2008 we will be current with our financial reporting as we have pledged to our shareholders,” said Dan Ustian, Navistar chairman, president and CEO. “We expect to be relisted by the New York Stock Exchange shortly after we complete these filings and we look forward to being back on the Big Board where our stock has been listed for more than 99 years.”
