

International Newsroom

Navistar Stockholders Elect Three Incumbents to the Board of Directors at Annual Meeting

WARRENVILLE, Ill. (Feb. 16, 2010) Navistar International Corporation (NYSE: NAV) announced that stockholders at its annual meeting today elected three incumbent directors to the board of directors, ratified the selection of KPMG as the company's independent registered public accounting firm and approved amendments to the company's performance incentive plan.

The director incumbents elected for a three-year term are:

- Eugenio Clariond, a director since 2002, and retired chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Group IMSA, S.A., a producer of steel processed products.
- Diane H. Gulyas, a director since 2009, and president of E.I. DuPont de Nemours and Company's performance polymers group.
- William H. Osborne, a director since 2009, and the president and chief executive officer of Federal Signal Corporation, a manufacturer and marketers of fire, safety and municipal infrastructure equipment.

One of the amendments to the company's performance incentive plan increased the number of shares available for issuance to 5,750,000 shares from 3,250,000 shares. The other amendment added an additional performance measure, earnings before interest and taxes, to the performance incentive plan. No other proposals were presented for action and 87.92 percent of all of the outstanding shares of Navistar were voted at today's meeting.

---

<https://news.international.com/news?item=356>